This Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) is designed to provide You with the necessary information regarding this product in order that You can make an informed choice about purchasing this product. In this PDS / Policy Wording You will find all the information You need to know about the type of cover(s) available, Our terms and conditions, benefits and risks and making a claim.

Any general advice in this PDS has been prepared without taking into account Your objectives, financial situation or insurance requirements. Before purchasing this product, consider whether this product is appropriate to Your objectives, financial situation and needs.

Applicable Sections Clause

Not all Sections of this PDS and Policy wording document will apply to You. The precise coverage afforded is subject to the terms and conditions outlined in the PDS, Policy Schedule and any endorsements, as issued by Us and is subject to the coverage option chosen by You.

Policy Features and Benefits

Our policies are available to people within the age bracket stated in the Policy Schedule or by endorsement. Weekly benefits are payable for the Benefit Period as stated in the Policy Schedule. The below sections give a summary of how the cover could operate; however, it is important that You refer to Your Policy Schedule for the details of the cover available to You.

The Policy Schedule will show the details of the:

- Insured
- type of cover
- Policy Period
- Sums Insured
- Waiting Periods;

and other important information.

24 Hour Injury and Sickness Cover

We pay an agreed lump sum benefit for Accidental Death or weekly benefits if You suffer an Insured Event included in the Table of Benefits as a result of Injury or Sickness (if covered) which occurs during the Scope of Cover.

The Policy acts as a Workers' Compensation Top-Up cover to weekly benefits during Working Hours in circumstances where a claim is payable under any Workers' Compensation Act or Ordinance or Workcover that provides for payments of weekly benefits. See "Special Conditions - Weekly Benefits" on page 15 for further details.

The cover in the Policy is subject to certain terms, conditions and exclusions (including limits and excesses).

For example, We do not pay a benefit in the following circumstances:

- a. in relation to a Pre-Existing Condition;
- b. Your suicide or attempted suicide; intentional self-Injury or an attempt at intentional self-Injury;
- c. neurosis, psychoneurosis, psychosis, mental disorder or disease, emotional disorder or disease, depression, stress, anxiety condition or disorder or mental illness of any kind; or chronic fatigue syndrome; unless You are being treated by or have been referred to a psychiatrist, psychologist or other appropriate specialist;
- d. You being Under the Influence of alcohol or drugs (other than prescribed and taken as directed by Medical Practitioner).

For full details of all relevant Policy exclusions, where cover does not apply, You should read the Policy Wording and make yourself aware of all the exclusions that apply to this insurance.

Waiting Period

If You make a claim for benefits under the Policy, a Waiting Period may apply. The applicable Waiting Period is specified in the Policy Schedule.

Significant Risks

You should ensure that the weekly benefit is sufficient to cover Your loss of weekly Income. For example: if the weekly benefit is less than Your weekly Income, We will only pay up to the weekly benefit stated in the Policy Schedule.

Duty Not to Misrepresent

This insurance is a consumer insurance contract under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth).

Before We agree to insure You (including when We issue You with the insurance for the first time or agree to renew, extend, vary, reinstate or replace it), You have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to Us.

A misrepresentation includes a statement that is in any way false, misleading, dishonest or which does not fairly reflect the truth. We will not treat something as a misrepresentation merely because You failed to answer a question or gave an obviously incomplete or irrelevant answer to a question.

When answering Our questions You need to take reasonable care to make sure Your answers are true, honest, up to date and complete in all respects.

If another person is answering for You, We'll treat their answers as Yours. In such a case You should check the questions have been answered correctly on Your behalf by them.

Subject to applicable law, a breach of the duty by one insured affects all insureds in these ways. If You do not take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation, or if You are careless in Your answers or recklessly or deliberately make a misrepresentation, We may, acting reasonably and subject to applicable law, reject or not fully pay Your claim or cancel Your insurance or if the misrepresentation was fraudulent, treat it as if it never existed.

However, we will not do this if We would have entered into the contract, for the same premium and on the same terms and conditions, even if the failure had not occurred. Whether or not You have taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation is to be determined by Us acting reasonably, with regard to all relevant circumstances.

We must also take account of any particular characteristics or circumstances about You that We were aware of, or ought reasonably to have been aware of. If any question or guidance provided is not clear or you need additional assistance, you can contact us.

Cooling off period

You may return this Policy to Us within 14 days of the date We enter into it provided that no right or power under the Policy has been exercised (eg no claim has been made).

Where You return it within the above 14-day period We will cancel the Policy and issue a full refund of premium. Please note You still have cancellation rights that can be exercised after this period expires.

Expiry of Your Policy

Your Policy expires at 4pm on the date shown on Your Policy Schedule.

Policy Renewal

Policy coverage applies for the Policy Period stated in the Policy Schedule. Renewal of the Policy for a new Policy Period is subject to Our review and We may refuse to offer a new Policy Period or alter any terms and conditions under the new Policy Period being offered, including amending the premium payable and applying specific exclusions to the new Policy Period.

When does Your Increase in Cover under the Policy Begin?

Where You already covered under the Policy and You apply for an increase in the level of Your cover, We must agree to the increase in cover in writing before it can apply to the Policy. The increase in cover will then begin from the date We agree to the increase in writing.

Mental Health Claims Limitation

(relates to Workers Compensation Top Up claims only)

Where You suffer an Injury or Sickness that results in a disablement for a Mental Health Condition, the maximum Benefit Period will be limited to 39 weeks only (in addition to the first 13 weeks of cover provided by Workers Compensation).

Special Conditions – General

1. Benefits shall not be payable in the following circumstances:
 - a. beyond the date of Your death except if there is a valid entitlement to claim benefits under Event 1 – Accidental Death;
 - b. before the date on which You first consulted a Medical Practitioner for an Injury or Sickness;
 - c. for any circumstances that occur outside the Scope of Cover specified in the Policy Schedule.

2. Benefits shall not be payable for Events 2, 3, 4 and/or 5:
 - a. in excess of the Benefit Period as set out in the Policy Schedule, whether there is a recurrence or otherwise.
 - b. during the Waiting Period;
 - c. after the Waiting Period, in an amount which exceeds the lesser of:
 - i. the maximum sum insured shown the Policy Schedule against Weekly Benefits, or
 - ii. the applicable percentage of Your Income as shown in the Policy Schedule against Weekly Benefits.
3. The amount of any benefit payable for Temporary Total Disablement and Temporary Partial Disablement will be reduced by:
 - a. any periodical payment of any kind but, including but not limited to, income protection insurance benefits for the same Injury or Sickness,
 - b. Wages, salary (not including sick leave entitlements) or earned Income from any other source, so that the total amount of any such benefit or entitlement together with any benefits payable under the Policy does not exceed the applicable percentage of Your Income as shown in the Policy Schedule against Weekly Benefits.

Notwithstanding the above, in circumstances where a claim for Events 2, 3, 4 and/or 5 arises from an Injury or Sickness which occurs during Working Hours and a claim is payable under any Workers' Compensation Act or Ordinance or Workcover, then:

1. the Weekly Benefit becomes payable after thirteen (13) weeks, and not the Waiting Period as stated in the Schedule;

This means that You cannot receive more than the applicable percentage of Your Income as shown in the Policy Schedule against Weekly Benefits from Workers' Compensation, partial earnings (if applicable) and this Policy combined.

4. Calculation of Weekly Benefits

Compensation for periods of less than one week will be paid at the rate of one seventh (1/7th) of the weekly benefit.

5. Recurrent Disablement

If You have returned to work after having received weekly benefits for Temporary Total Disablement and have a recurrence of Temporary Total Disablement (arising from the same Injury or Sickness) within 6 months of Your return to work, then You can claim for the balance of the Benefit Period, if any. In the above circumstance the Waiting Period will not be applied again. Any recurrence more than 6 months of the previous Temporary Total Disablement ceasing will be considered as a new claim subject to all terms, conditions and exclusions of the Policy.

6. Payment of Benefits in the Event of Accidental Death

If a benefit is payable in respect of Your Accidental Death, the benefit will be paid to Your estate.
